

Pathways Program

Planning Tool for AOEU Coursework

Graduate students pursuing this pathway will first take 18 credits with The Art of Education University (listed below). Upon completion of these 18 credits, students must apply for transfer to Waldorf University's M.Ed in Teaching and Learning and complete the remaining 18 credits. The Waldorf University courses listed below are for informational purposes only. Program completion is contingent on acceptance to Waldorf University.

NAME: _____ START DATE: _____
 PACE: _____ INTENDED TRANSFER DATE: _____

AOEU Coursework (recommended order)	Intended Term Dates
ARE 534: Managing the Art Room
ARE 516: Instructional Strategies for Art Teachers
ARE 541: Innovation Through Design
ARE 544: Arts Integration: How Art Increases Academic Capacity
ARE 546: Social-Emotional Learning in the Visual Arts
DIG 547: Technology in the 21st Art Room
Apply to Waldorf University's M.Ed in Teaching and Learning to complete remaining coursework.
EDU 5100: Personal Leadership Skills and Team Building
EDU 5102: Student-Centered Differentiated Learning
EDU 5200: Building Professional and Community Relationships
EDU 6000: Assessment, Learning and Action Research
EDU 6900: Ethical Leadership
ORG 5000: Personal Leadership Development

AOEU Information

- The Art of Education University is accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC).
- Students must meet AOEU's admission requirements for individual courses and declare their intent to pursue the Pathways Program.
- Complete 18 credits through AOEU.
- Recommended timeline: 12-18 months.
- Upon completion of 18 credits, apply to Waldorf.

Waldorf Information

- Waldorf University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC).
- Students must meet Waldorf University's admission requirements and be accepted to the program.
- Complete 18 credits through Waldorf University.
- Accepted students who graduate from Waldorf will earn a Master of Education (M.Ed) in Teaching and Learning
- Learn more about Waldorf University here: <https://waldorf.edu/aoeu>